Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Cincinnati Names Ali Winters Vice President of Development

CINCINNATI, Ohio (DATE) - Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Cincinnati (BGCGC) has announced the hiring of Ali Winters as its new Vice President of Development, strengthening the organization’s leadership team as it continues to expand opportunities for local youth.

Winters brings more than a decade of nonprofit experience to BGCGC, with a fundraising background spanning arts education, hunger relief and community development. She joined BGCGC in October 2025 and now leads the organization’s development strategy, revenue growth and donor engagement efforts.

In her role, Winters is responsible for engaging the community to cultivate strategic partnerships, overseeing BGCGC’s revenue budget and fundraising initiatives and leading the development team to support expanded programming for youth across Greater Cincinnati. She will play a key role in growing the organization’s endowment to ensure long-term sustainability and advocating for BGCGC’s mission to inspire continued community investment.

“Ali brings a rare combination of strategic fundraising expertise, deep community involvement, and a passion for mission-driven work,” said Bill Bresser, the CEO of Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Cincinnati. “Her leadership will be instrumental as we continue building bright futures for the young people we serve.”

Winters relocated to Cincinnati in 2018 to work in fundraising for the Educational Theatre Association before serving as a major and planned giving officer at Freestore Foodbank. She holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts from Webster University’s Conservatory of Theatre Arts and a Master of Arts in Nonprofit Management from Webster University. She is also a Certified Fund Raising Executive (CFRE).

Beyond her professional role, Winters is actively engaged in the local nonprofit and civic community. She serves as a board member and mentor for the Greater Cincinnati chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals and as vice president of the Camp Washington Community Council.

Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Cincinnati serves thousands of young people each year through high-quality programs focused on academic success, healthy lifestyles and leadership development. With Winters’ leadership, BGCGC continues to strengthen its ability to provide safe, supportive environments where youth can thrive.
