Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Cincinnati Named "Hero for Youth" by Boys & Girls Clubs of America

CINCINNATI, Ohio (DATE) – Boys & Girls Clubs of America's Office of Government Relations has recognized Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Cincinnati (BGCGC) as a Hero for Youth through its Club Advocacy Recognition Program.

"By elevating the voices of our young people, we ensure that our elected leaders understand the critical importance of supporting our youth and the Boys & Girls Clubs who serve them," stated Boys & Girls Clubs of America.

The Hero for Youth Award is given annually to Clubs who place in the top 50 percent of Clubs for their advocacy engagement utilizing GR Central, Boys & Girls Clubs of America's advocacy engagement portal. By participating in meetings with their state, local and federal elected officials, conducting social media outreach, offering Club tours to local leaders, media advocacy and more, BGCGC has earned this status.

"Boys & Girls Clubs has a great relationship with city, county and state elected officials from both parties," said Bill Bresser, Chief Executive Officer, Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Cincinnati. "We want to be the first agency they think about when it comes to issues facing youth."
